FISHING REPORTS

Fishing is slowly picking up. On the few trips that I have been out, I have done well with Flounder.

Recently, I had a shot at tree cobia, but they were not interested in my fly. A bit frustrating, but exciting to see the fish swimming around the bouy befor saying goodbye. Other members that have fished reported a first year class of "puppy drum". Sam Davis recently went on a trip with the OBX club fishing the Outer Banks, and caught several Speckled Trout to 20 inches. Spadefish are being caught at the tower, but it has not been a consistent bite as of this writing.
